Area

Carnoustie is situated on Scotland's East Coast, approximately 10 miles north of Dundee. Renowned originally as a holiday resort the town has many lively businesses along its main street including coffee shops and hostleries. Famous for its golf association the town is proud of its landmark Championship links course drawing many visitors and golfers to the area. The town caters for this with several hotels, guesthouses and bed and breakfast establishments and the impressive Carnoustie Golf Hotel. The town boasts 3 primary schools and a high school and allows easy commuting both north and south by road and railway.
