Forfar 6 miles, Dundee 19 miles, Perth 28 miles, Aberdeen 54 miles,
Edinburgh 80 miles (All distances are approximate).

This extended, traditional detached stone built villa is situated in an off street location, within a few minutes walk from the Town Centre, Webster's High School, Primary schools and transport links. Kirriemuir offers a broad cross section of social, leisure and consumer facilities and provides convenient access to the Dundee/ Aberdeen A90 dual carriageway which connects to major routes north and south. Also known as the 'Gateway to the Glens', Kirriemuir leads to some of the finest scenery in the northeast of Scotland. The town is surrounded by prime agricultural land and lies at the foot of the Angus Glens which provide some of the best hill walking in eastern Scotland. There is skiing at Glenshee, shooting on many of the local estates and fishing is available on the North and South Esks. The town provides local schooling, both primary schooling at Northmuir & Southmuir Primary and secondary schooling at Webster's High School together with a good selection of independent shops and a supermarket, leisure, business, and community facilities. Forfar, the county town, lies 6 miles distant and has a wide range of services including a new sports and leisure centre at the Community Campus. Dundee provides all the facilities expected of a major city and is the location of the new V&A Museum. Private schooling is available at Dundee High School with a dedicated bus service from Forfar. There is a mainline railway station at Dundee with mainline services, including a sleeper to London. There is an airport at Dundee with flights to London Heathrow. Local attractions include Glamis Castle and the Loch of Kinnordy Nature Reserve. In addition to golf courses at Kirriemuir and Forfar there are three courses at Alyth and the championship courses at Carnoustie and Rosemount (Blairgowrie) are within easy driving distance.

The property comprises a spacious family home with the original part of the house dating back to the 1930's with a modern two storey extension to rear. Extending to approx. 314 sqm the property offers well proportioned accommodation and the range of public rooms and bedrooms can be adapted to suit the individual purchasers requirements. The subjects benefit from double and triple glazing, gas fired central heating, three multi fuel burning stoves, modern quality kitchen with open plan dining/family room, spacious lounge to rear, en suite shower room, ground floor shower room, family bathroom and shower room from the games/sitting room.

Electric gates lead to the first part of the garden ground which has lapsed planning permission. Buyers should satisfy themselves regarding current planning policy. The immediate gardens grounds surrounding the property are beautifully landscaped with planting borders, mature trees and fruit trees and with a range of sheds, greenhouse and log store. The garden grounds extend to approximately 1.3 acres or thereby.

There is driveway parking for a number of vehicles leading to a parking courtyard and double garage. There is a large summerhouse to rear.
