Property Description

This deceptively spacious DETACHED VILLA is ideally located in a semi-rural location on the outskirts of Arbroath affording superb countryside views both to the front & rear and yet is within minutes' drive of all central amenities and services including supermarkets and both Primary and Secondary schools. The property offers adaptable room usage over two levels and benefits from Oil fired central heating and Double glazing. Internally, there are modern fittings and finishings, complimented by some lovely features including flag stone floors, laminate flooring and wood burning stove.

Outside, the front garden area is laid out for easy maintenance and a driveway enters the property offering ample car parking and leading to the large Garage. There are gardens surrounding the property, with the rear garden laid out in paving stones with mature shrubs and bushes, a composite decking area, artificial turf and all enjoying a sunny aspect.
