

6 Arnhall
Gardens,

Dundee,
DD2 1PH

Summary

This spacious detached house in the desirable West End of Dundee has classical proportions and charming features throughout, whilst also benefiting from attractive coastal views. The well-presented interiors include a south-facing living room, a bow-fronted formal dining room, an integrated dining kitchen, two double bedrooms (one with an en-suite shower room, the other with a south-facing balcony), a third bedroom with home study potential and a four-piece family bathroom. With three points of access from inside, the generous mature gardens surround the property and include a covered decking area. Additionally, a private driveway provides ample off-street parking. Extras: All fitted floor and window coverings and light fittings are included.
