Summary

This extended historic semi-detached home in Dundee is perfectly suited to growing families, multi-generational living, or buyers seeking flexible space to work from home. Bay windows, fireplaces, and original press shelving bring warmth and personality to a generous layout offering multiple reception rooms and up to five bedrooms (plus a box room), easily adapted to individual needs. Set within an established residential neighbourhood, the property enjoys proximity to schools, shops, supermarkets, parks, and excellent transport connections across Dundee and beyond. Mature gardens, greenhouse, and useful outbuildings further enhance the home's practicality and long-term appeal. Extras: All fitted floor and window coverings, light fittings, and integrated appliances are included.
