This well-presented semi-detached house with separate "Granny" flat and garage is set within a popular and well-established residential area close to the City Centre and is convenient for universities, colleges and Ninewells hospital. The property is unique as it contains a self-contained Granny Flat. The property presents a fantastic opportunity for purchasers seeking a home with flexible living space that can be adapted to suit a variety of individual requirements. The property is currently a successful, top-rated Airbnb generating excellent annual revenue with consistent occupancy. Benefits include app controlled electric heating and double glazing. Externally the property benefits from two separate entrances, a main entrance from Inverary Terrace and a secondary, level-access via Lawside Road, providing easy entry with no stairs. The property also includes a private detached garage and driveway which offers off street parking. This is located directly across from the property on Lawside Road. Early internal viewing is highly recommended.
