Broughty Ferry is a prestigious suburb east of Dundee, offering an attractive coastal lifestyle within easy reach of the city. Residents and visitors enjoy its long sandy beach, esplanade and castle, all ideal for walks and leisure time. Known locally as “The Ferry”, the area offers a wide range of independent shops, cafés and restaurants, including the well-known Visocchi’s ice cream shop and Italian café. It also provides excellent schooling at both primary and secondary level, with the prestigious High School of Dundee only a short drive away. Dundee’s mainline railway station, with regular services north and south, also stops at Broughty Ferry.

The A90 dual carriageway provides convenient access to Aberdeen, Perth, Edinburgh and Glasgow, while Dundee Airport offers flights to London City and other destinations. The surrounding area offers a variety of outdoor pursuits, with St Andrews, the home of golf, across the River Tay and the Championship course at Carnoustie just a few miles along the coast.
